Camps/Classes

Beginning Musical Ear Training (Day Camp)	215.00
Students will learn how to pick out the notes/pitches of a well-known song such as Happy Birthday or Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star and play it back on the keyboard without using sheet music. No prior keyboard/music experience is required. Keyboards/pianos will be provided. Students must bring a laptop Compatible with Windows 7/8/10/11 (including 64-bit versions of each OS). All students (parents) are required to preload one software application prior to the 1st day of class. Once enrolled a link to the free 30-day software trial will be provided. The software application is available at the Microsoft Store on 30-day trial for free for the class. To use after the class, may want to purchase for $39.95, but not a requirement. The instructor will load an MP3 file on each computer on the 1st day of class. Your student will leave camp with a firm foundation for learning additional songs on their own using this application and tool. INSTRUCTOR: Mark Ripley, Piano Instructor, Greenhill School
Biking and Games-All Levels (Sports Camp)	220.00
Ready to improve your biking skills? Beginner or intermediate cyclists are welcome. We will divide campers into appropriate groups depending on your skill level. This camp will teach you skills above your current level as we ride on paths around Greenhill's 78-acre campus and Addison trails in the surrounding area. Each day we will take time to cool off and have fun in our indoor pool. Flotation belts will be provided for students unable to swim 25 yards. We will work to improve our stopping, turning, braking, balance, and riding skills. Campers will need a bike and helmet, water bottle, snack, swimsuit, optional goggles, and a towel. Bikes will be locked each day and stored on campus. We encourage beginner campers to come without training wheels. COACHES: Collin Baker, Gabi Grobler, Greenhill School
